

Black Elderberry

60 liquid-filled capsules

Item Catalog Number: 12831

Black Elderberry concentrate provides support for healthy immune function, and has been used by many individuals to help ease flu symptoms. If taken at the onset of symptoms, black elderberry is effective especially if taken at the first signs of illness. The product can also be used as a preventive if one has been exposed to infected persons, or for general protection during flu season.
