

EMERGENCY ALERT:

The Alliance for Natural Health <http://www.alliance-natural-health.org> urgently needs $20,000 in donations for an all important lawsuit on which the future survival of the global dietary supplement industry rests.

ANH will be in the High Court of Justice, London, UK on January 30th, and your urgent donations are badly needed to sustain their legal campaign.

For complete information, please see the cover story interview by Greg Ciola of John Hammell in The Health Crusador magazine at <http://www.thehealthcrusader.com/pgs/CrusadorNewsletterJan04.pdf>. This interview will fully help you to "connect the dots" so that you can understand why a legal action occurring off U.S. soil is none the less of critical importance to American vitamin consumers as well as vitamin consumers all over the world.

Donations to the Alliance for Natural Health can be made via the secure server on their website at <http://www.alliance-natural-health.org/>. Grass roots donations are extremely important because the supplement industry is being ably led to the cliff by their pharma-dominated vitamin trade associations. This lawsuit has hardly any industry support, which makes it doubly important that you donate ANY AMOUNT YOU POSSIBLY CAN.

John Hammell, who last reported on this lawsuit in the July issue of Life Extension magazine http://www.lef.org/magazine/mag2003/2003_preprint_eu_01.html will be returning to London to provide us with an eyewitness account of what transpires in the courtroom.

DO NOT TAKE THIS SITUATION LIGHTLY! IF YOU VALUE YOUR ACCESS TO DIETARY SUPPLEMENTS - YOU MUST TAKE IMMEDIATE ACTION!!
