

Kyolic Garlic Formula 102

350 mg, 200 capsules

Item Catalog Number: 00316

Garlic has been valued for centuries for its multi-faceted benefits. It has antioxidant action and can boost the level of natural glutathione, an important cellular detoxifier. The compounds allicin and oligosulfides found in garlic have demonstrated the ability to support healthy platelet function. Garlic may also act as a chelator of iron and other heavy metals that can accumulate in the body. 196-225

This Kyolic® formula is available for those people that want more garlic than Formula 105 and already take enough selenium, beta-carotene, etc. in other supplements. This vegetarian formula also contains natural enzymes to assist the digestion and absorption of food.
